

BAROMETER

The barometer method asks the participants to move on a scale of agreement or disagreement towards various quotations on the topic of politicians, artists, religious figures and scholars. It acts as an opener for the following modules and aims at opening the perspectives on (forced) migration and responsibilities in past and present as well as at visualizing current positions of the participants.

Instructions

Quotations

